Ad Hoc Committee: Hello Frasca, Your Ad hoc Committee met this month and began working with policy to develop verbiage to add red line to current policy. The purpose of this action is to enable changes in policy that will coincide with WSO suggested banking procedures. If motions to amend policy are accepted Ad hoc will then be able to make a motion to apply for federal EIN, that will then in turn allow the area banking procedures to align with policy.

Next Committee meeting will be 11/10/24 4pm EST on zoom. Everyone is welcome to attend.

Topic discussion

Good afternoon, Family, Our meeting is still going well. We were the Meeting of the Month (thanks for the pizza and beverages!) and had a great meeting with a wonderful speaker. I believe there were at least, if not more than one hundred addicts!

We have a large literature order of 229.72 and I need to also pick up some orange and green key tags we are owed from July. I'm not sure how many of each color we are owed because someone threw away the paper that Dave wrote the quantities on away. I missed ASC last month but I'm sure Dave kept track. Also, I'm so sorry! I had to add $38.77 for key tags nto our existing order this morning because I forgot to do it last night. Due to missing ASC last month and missing some home group meetings I created an issue with literature. This is my fault, and I'm getting back on track. Hopefully, it wasn't too late to fill the key tags order. THANK YOU for your service, Dave!

We do not have a donation this month.
Love and Gratitude, Martha B.

Britt-showing new FRASCNA web page that shows open positions in area and subcommittees only.

Jeff-asked about some subcommittees showing chair occupied but there is not a list of occupied LSC coordinator chairs.

Britt is open to adding all open and occupied positions on the web page but is concerned too much on the page will disinterest the reader. Wanted to keep things simple and to a minimum.

Doug- thinks its looks good, keep it simple

LSC Website report:

Good afternoon. Website made a meeting change on the website for the Tuesday night Fairborn meeting as it has switched locations. This was also updated on the area FB group, and on BMLT for Ohio and World to update. Flyers were added for the meeting of the month, our Halloween event and the Guiding Principles anniversary.

We have also prepared a new tab for the website. It is currently a draft and has not been published. This tab will be titled "Help Wanted". This provides a brief description for all open ASC and subcommittee positions as well as instructions on where to find more detailed descriptions and meeting information for them. Once LSC has approved and made any necessary changes, this tab will be published to the website.

Our area FB group continues to provide a variety of information, events and the JFT and SPAD each day.

Thank you for allowing me to be of service.
