C) RCM REPORT

Good afternoon family. Thank you for the opportunity to serve NA and the Five Rivers Area.

I attended the Ohio Regional Service Committee Meeting two weeks ago in Fairborn. Being in the Dayton area so I do not have an expense report to submit. Our Regional Delegate brought news of the review availability for the new Spiritual Principle a Day book the NA World Service office is working on. You can go to www.na.org/spad to review and have input on it.

The Regional Webmaster position remains vacant. Our vice-webmaster has willingness to continue in his position at this time but cannot move up to to the time commitment needed and having his own health concerns. We urge anyone that has willingness and knowledge of working with websites, especially in NA service, to step up and either submit willingness for this position or offer help to our regional webmaster. Please get with me after the meeting if anyone has willingness or knows an addict that might. This is a vitally important position to keep filled with our world's reliance on technology and communication these days.

This leads to the continuing theme of vacant service positions at both area and regional levels as it is expressed regularly. The Midwest Zone continues to urge regions and areas to get members to attend the Multi Regional Service Learning Days in Racine, WI September 13-15, 2019 so we can see from other NA communities how these service positions work for them. I have placed the itinerary for this event on each table so that everyone can see it is a weekend of learning how to be of service to NA at every level, and will be vitally important to bring this info back to our groups and area to help to continue to carry the message of NA.

In loving service,

David C.

- 2) Serenity on Sundays Secretary stepped down due to a relapse, criteria reviewed for new secretary
