Serenity Prayer

Hello FRASCNA,

Following up with action items from last month.

1. I was unable to attend DASCNA H&I meeting. I was out of town, will try next month.

2. Skylight meeting

I haven't found enough interest/availability from individuals to commit to regularly scheduled meeting. I'm planning on asking if we can do a month to month basis to start.

3. Vice chair position is open. Ryan M has expressed interest. I told him I could show him how, and to show up at LSC

4. I am NOT ordering anything this month

New business:

1. DeCoach meetings are still going on.

Women couldn't go in May. Facility was notified.

Women's meeting will need schedules when we get more.

Men's meeting is struggling with volunteers attendance. They have gone back to 1 meeting a month. They don't need any literature currently.

2. I'm still coordinating with Regional H&I to get Women volunteers for ORW meeting. I can get volunteers the paperwork and contact info to get signed up.

3. Next Regional meeting will be in Columbus, Regional H&I will be having a meeting for all interested parties and area chairs. I plan on attending, would be cool to have some other people interested to go too. If anyone is interested please contact me.

4. My time as chair is up. Thanks for allowing me to serve, it has been awesome to serve this committee and area. I shall remain available to help new members get started in H&I and this committee.

ILS
Doug S

Website:

Good afternoon,

Website was pretty busy this month as I prepare to pass the torch. I went through and saved all documents that have been uploaded the past few years. I have a folder of flyers, a folder of policies, and a folder containing all area minutes since 2019. I did some updating on the help wanted page to try to make it easier to follow. I also went through each page to look for any old information. The website should be clean and up to date. I have also verified information on BMLT (Ohio NA) and made a change to the Never Alone group on there. Finally, I went through and verified current home group email accounts. As we transition over the next month, Dan G and I will be helping Erik to get up to speed. I want to thank you all, as well as everyone who has played a part during my time as Website chair to help me maintain both the website and the Facebook area page. I will be here to help Erik as long as he needs. Thank you for allowing me to be of service along side you.
